Honorable Edmond E.
Chang

Northshore University HealthSystem, et al.

Defendant.

NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Tuesday, November 17, 2015:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Edmond E. Chang: NorthShore's motion for reconsideration, R. 749, of the Order of 09/04/2015, R. 742, denying in part its motions, R. 641–647, to compel arbitration, is granted. Rather than respond in substance to the reconsideration motion, each of the corporate entities targeted by the motion did not oppose the motion or took no position on it, as communicated through Class Counsel. Perhaps the entities could have argued that the reconsideration standard had not been met because NorthShore initially mentioned the entities only in the footnotes in the motions to compel. R. 742 at 4–5. And perhaps Coventry and Principal Behavioral could have argued that the applicable arbitration agreements on which NorthShore relies do not actually require arbitration. R. 718–1 at 9 (Coventry); R. 718–31 at 12 (Principal). Similarly, Oxford could have questioned what appears to be an unsigned draft as the basis for arbitration. R. 718–28 at 6. But none of the entities, and not Class Counsel, substantively responded to the motion for reconsideration. Oxford "does not oppose" the motion and the other entities take "no position." R. 752 at 1. So, absent protest, NorthShore's motion is granted. Accordingly, Oxford Health Plans LLC, One Health Plan of Illinois, Great–West Healthcare, Principal Behavioral Healthcare, Inc., CCN Managed Care, Inc., and Coventry Health and Life Ins. Co. are compelled to arbitrate. Emailed notice(slb,)
